2. GSM Selection Process

GSM Selection Process

- SAS/SBM/SDM Year 1 learners will pre-select a certain number of your desired elective GSM choices by using the GENESSYS (General Studies Selection System)
- You will be registered for modules by GENESSYS, subject to the following factors:
 - The order of your choices
 - Demand and availability of the modules that you have selected
 - Your average nett GSM attendance percentage, if you have selected an over-subscribed module (For Sem 1, the system will do a random allocation as you do not have prior GSM attendance)

How Is Your GSM Attendance Rate Considered For Module Allocation?

- If a GSM is over-subscribed (i.e. more applicants than vacancies), GENESSYS will look at each learner's average nett GSM attendance percentage for the past semester to determine allocation
- A learner with a higher average GSM attendance rate for the last semester will be given priority for the module versus another learner with a lower attendance rate
- Only your nett GSM attendance percentage will be considered (you are not penalised for missed lessons due to valid reasons)
- It is therefore important for you to attend your GSM classes regularly to maintain a good attendance rate, which gives you a higher chance of securing your choice GSM for future semesters' selection exercises

Over-subscribed Modules – How it Works

A GSM has 20 places available

30 learners have picked this GSM as their 1st choice

- System will compare the average GSM attendance % for each of the 30 learners
- System will give the 20 places to learners who have the best attendance rates

If there is a tie for the last few places due to similar attendance %, the system will randomly allocate the remaining places

Submit Your Choices

- Your choices are considered successfully “submitted” once they are saved.
- After submitting, you can still log into GENESSYS to make changes to your previous selection before the closing date of the selection exercise, after which all choices are considered final.

4. Important Information for GSM Selection

Modules are grouped into the following three categories

Group	Modules offered by	No. of Choices you must make per group for choices 1 to 9	Remarks
1	CFGS (Centre for Foundation & General Studies)	2
2	SBM, SEG and SAS	4
3	SDM, SHSS and SIT	3

For choices 10, 11 and 12, you can select modules from any of the three groups.

- You are given a total of 12 choices for submission.
- For choices 1 to 9, you are required to select two modules from Group 1, four modules from Group 2 and three modules from Group 3 in any order (see table above).
- Last 3 choices (Choice 10, 11 & 12) can be from any group
- Please refer to GSM portal in myNYP Portal for more information on GSM modules and number of vacancies offered.

Making Your Submission

- Please ensure that you complete all 12 choices before submission.
- After submitting, you can still log into GENESSYS to make changes to your selection before the closing date of the selection exercise, after which all choices are considered final.
- Do note that due to overwhelming demand for some modules, learners may not be guaranteed their top choices.

Important Considerations When Selecting Your GSMs

- Select and prioritise your modules based on interest
- Spread your selection across the various time slots to maximise your chances of getting the modules that you want

For example, you selected only the 2pm time slot for all your 12 choices.

Implications:

Competition for this time slot may be high and you may end up not getting any GSM of your choice. GENESSYS may then allocate you to any available GSM outside of your selection.

Instead, you should select a mixture of time slots – 2pm, 3pm – for modules that you are interested in to maximise your chances of getting a place.

Posting Results

- Allocation will be confirmed around 5pm on the Friday of the first week of the semester
- Please check and print your timetable to view the GSMs that have been allocated to you
- If there is any discrepancy in your GSM timetable, please inform your Personal Mentor or Course Manager

5. Dates of GSM Selection Exercise
